Patterson-Barco.

Last Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock at the home of her parents on Ocklawaha avenue, Miss Jessie Barco was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel Lester Patterson, of Miami.

Rev. Howard Dutil, pastor of the Methodist church, read the ceremony that made them man and wife.

Owing to the death of the sister of the groom a short time ago the wedding was very quiet, only the immediate family and relatives being present.

At the appointed time the wedding march was played by Osko and Guy Zewadski, and the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father. She was beautifully gowned in white liberty silk over satin, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was unattended.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left on the noon train for Jacksonville, where they will spend a few days before going to their home in Miami.

The bride has lived in Ocala only about a year, but before that time had often visited relatives here. She has endeared herself to all who know her by her winning ways and gracious manners, and it is with sincere regret that we part with her.

The groom is a rising young lawyer of the firm of Graham and Patterson, and is city attorney of Miami.

The Banner extends to Mr. and Mrs. Patterson its congratulations and best wishes.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt, of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender.
